

Step Back in Time With Gayle Martin and Journey to Tombstone, Arizona Territory

Treat your audience to some real ‘edutainment.’ Whether you need an entertaining dinner program, a program for spouses and families, or a one-of-a-kind keynote address, author and storyteller Gayle Martin will take your attendees on a journey back in time that will make them feel as if they too were walking the streets of 1880s Tombstone.

Topic

“Elizabeth St. Claire: The Tombstone Storyteller”

Elizabeth has just completed the adventure of a lifetime. She and her husband traveled to Tombstone in the Arizona Territory to strike it rich and found themselves in a Wild West boom town complete with stagecoach robberies, and a shoot-out near the OK Corral.

Elizabeth does more than just entertain. Her stories are based on solid historical research and reveal real-life events of the Old West that are often more remarkable than fiction. Within the historical context of their “time travel trip” your audience will relive the moment and experience examples of:

- Courage
- Heroism
- Law & Order
- Resiliency
